MUNICIPAL CONFERENCE ANNOUNCES LEADERS FOR 2010-2011

The DuPage Mayors and Managers Conference inducted Warrenville Mayor David Brummel as its President at the Annual Dinner and Recognition Ceremony on May 21, 2010. The Conference, founded in 1962, is a council of 33 municipal governments in DuPage County.

In addition to Mayor Brummel, Burr Ridge Mayor Gary Grasso was inducted as Vice President and Warrenville City Administrator John Coakley was inducted as Secretary/Treasurer. The three were elected by their peers, beginning their one-year terms on June 1, 2010.

As President, Brummel is charged with appointing Conference members to serve as Directors and Deputy Directors to the Conference's committees. These individuals along with the three Officers, liaisons to the Metropolitan Mayors Caucus Executive Board, past presidents and at-large representative, comprise the Conference's Board of Directors.
